

Phoenix Phase

Come my weary, broken loves
and set your burdens at my feet.
For it's your time, your time at last!
Today you will become complete.

Leave your tired soul behind.
Your new era will transpire
and all your worries and your sins will incinerate in your phoenix fire.

So burn! Transform! It's time to rise!
For you'll excite and you'll amaze
all those who have ever doubted.
Welcome to your phoenix phase!
